Bust Quarters
37	1818 Large Bust F+ by wear but damaged. The coin appears to have been struck by a blunt object shortly after its mintage because defects fit perfectly into the coin's overall color & wear pattern. Further, there is a script "Liberty" finely and neatly engraved in the left obv field. An interesting coin.	EST P	75-100	SE
Seated Quarters
38	1858-S Good. Adequately defined rims. Very scarce issue w/ CDN bid at $200 for a G4.	EST	115-140	SE
39	1862-S Good. A scarce issue.	EST	110-135	SE
40	1864 (G-) & 1865 (G+) both are low-mintage Philadelphia-Mint Civil War coins that history says were issued mostly for international trade.	EST	135-160	SE
41	1877 Proof PCGS PR60. Lightly hairlined surfaces but the overall eye-appeal suggests a higher grade. Inspect!	EST P	260-325	SE
42	1891-O AG. Not a particularly attractive coin but easily discernable as the scarce 91-O. Mintage of only 68,000 at a time when coin usage was at its highest especially in the south. Greysheet bid is $300 in the lowly grade of G4!	EST	110-135	SE

72	(35) Diff in a complete set 1948 // 1963-D housed in a Whitman 9032 folder. Most are lovely choice BU coins, perhaps a couple AU+ but they are not among the better earlys. Worth inspection.	EST	400-500	SE
Kennedy Halves
73	1964 (2) BU Rolls (40 coins) white.	EST	210-240	B

Bust Dollars
75	1796 Small Date; Large Letters Bolender-4 BB-61 VF+ detail. There are two small scratches (3 to 4mm) on Liberty's neck and another lighter behind Liberty's hair (5mm). Other than those blemishes the coin is perfectly original, even light grey in color and very attractive. (Note: This particular die variety is notorious for having a weakly impressed reverse. Even AU+ specimens have indistinct or "fuzzy" eagle detail.)	EST P	2,600-3,200	HWC-SE
Seated Dollars
76	1872 very close to XF by wear. Pleasing overall appearance.	EST P	350-425	HWC-SE

77	1875-S XF+ brightened but still very attractive.	EST P	180-230	SE

78	(3) 1878 incl 1878 8TF AU (obv hairlines), 1878-CC F original, & 1878-S MS60	EST	170-210	SE
79	1878-CC MS60+ pure white.	EST P	270-325	SE
80	1880-CC MS60 white in a GSA envelope. When the GSA conducted their series of sales in the 1970's, coins that were toned or otherwise "blemished" were set aside and offered in a "mixed dates" category for a much cheaper price than the coins considered superior. Their packaging consisted of a simple blue envelope very similar to those used for uncirculated 40% silver Ike Dollars. The problem was that people with no understanding of coins or grading were making the calls on the toning and blemishes. Thus, some very lucky recipients acquired some excellent quality coins from the "mixed dates" category. A case in point is the present coin, which is a much better CC date. It's in an envelope indicating that it was a coin of the "mixed dates" category. They are an interesting story in and of themselves.	EST P	350-450	HWC-SE
81	1881-S GSA in plastic holder but w/o box There were a few non-CC dates in the Treasury Hoard incl 1879-S, 1880-S, 1881-S, & 1883-O, and though they are common dates, they are scarce in GSA holders and show CDN prices that are comparable to their CC counterparts.	EST	250-300	SE
82	1882-CC MS63 blast white in GSA box w/ papers.	EST P	170-210	SE
83	1882-CC VG & 1890-CC VG+ perhaps a bit better. Both nice originals.	EST	135-160	SE
84	1882-O ICG MS66 lightly toned.	EST P	950-1,200	HWC-SE
85	1882-O/S Strong ICG MS62 white and a nice coin for the grade.	EST P	200-240	SE
86	1883-CC NGC MS62 light champagne toning mostly on the periphery.	EST P	160-200	SE
87	1884-CC MS60+ white in GSA box w/ papers.	EST P	160-200	SE
88	(7) all 1889 original MS60 to 60+ predominantly white. From an old Delaware estate.	EST	150-180	SE
89	(2) PCGS-Graded incl 1890 MS62 & 1891 Unc Detail Altered Surfaces. Both nice coins, the 1890 is white and semi proof-like, and the 1891 may have been lightly enhanced but is still very attractive. You won't be disappointed with either coin.	EST	100-125	SE
90	1890-CC PCGS Unc Details Altered Surfaces. This coin has a few marks but should have graded MS60 or 61. The "altered surfaces" determined by PCGS is a total mystery. See for yourself.	EST P	270-350	SE
91	1900 MS60+ with spectacular rainbow toning on both sides, in PCGS holder "Genuine, Quest. Color - UNC Details"	EST	60-80	SE
92	1903-S Fine & 1904-S VG. Two of the scarcer S-Mint coins both lovely originals.	EST	90-115	SE

MEDALS & TOKENS

Medals

205	Delaware Tercentenary 1638-1938 70mm Silver Medal designed and modeled by Ulysses A. Ricci (1888 - 1960) in the original Medallion Arts display box. The typical Delaware Tercentenary medal is the more common 35mm Bronze issue HK-697 of which 5,000 were struck. (An example was sold by Heritage for $138 in Sept. 2018.) This issue possesses the same design as that of the bronze medal (obv: Kalmar Nyckel sailing ship that brought the Swedes to Delaware; rev: State Seal within a wide closed wreath with the 17 names of important individuals related to the history of Delaware - Read, Dickinson, Macdonough, Jones, Shipley, Tatnall, Saulsbury, Ridgely, DuPont, Gray, Bayard, Van Dyke, Layton, Kirkwood, Haslett, McKean, & Rodney.) However, the 70mm issue is comparatively rare with only 100 struck in silver (there were also 5 struck in gold.) It has an original antiqued and brushed finish. Little can be found about this medal other than that it exists and that it had an original issue price of $7.50. Speculation is that these large-size medals were presented to dignitaries and persons of high stature in honor of their service to the community or of the high offices that they may have held. The "CoinTalk" website quotes a "foremost collector of Delaware tokens, medals, and script" as saying he knew of only one piece, and that was in the hands of a "Delaware family." The current cataloger knows of possibly one other 70-mm silver piece that resides in the cabinet of a prominent Delaware coin collector (perhaps the same piece?). In any event, the 70mm silver Delaware Tercentenary medal is very scarce and this is the first piece of its kind that we have had the pleasure to offer. The chance of another offering any time in the near future is very slim. Don't miss this opportunity to own an interesting and important piece of Delaware memorabilia.	EST P	300-500	HWC-SE
